THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1769.

Out of thy own Mouth will I condemn thee.

A GOOD OLD BOOK.

THE Perſon who ſtiles himſelf FREEMAN, declares himſelf to be, a Defender of Liberty, a ſtrict Adherer to Truth, and the Conſtitution, and a Man of great Plainneſs in the Delivery of his Sentiments; which IF TRUE, he certainly is an Object of Regard and Reverence, however excentric his Opinions may be.

That free Men ſhould have free Wills is certain: But there are Reſtraints which every Man of good Breeding will regard, and there are many which Government has laid on Individuals. Is he to learn at this Time of Day, that a Papiſt enjoys his Opinions in Secret; that he is not allowed a Place of public Worſhip; that every Juſtice of the Peace, Church-Warden, Member of Aſſembly, and every Officer under the Government, is obliged to take certain Oaths, which declare an Abhorrence of certain Tenets? Does not this prevent many an honeſt conſcientious Man from riſing to Honours and Riches in the State? Is not this Reſtraint an Hardſhip in many Caſes? Does it not ariſe from a Deſire to preſerve the preſent eſtabliſhed Religion and Government? Can Men then be ſaid to "reaſon, and act in Conformity thereto," in every Reſpect? It is true, ſince the Days of the Stuarts, a perſecuting Spirit in Government, for Opinions, has ceaſed: But in every State, Men are checked in their Opinions, and Neceſſity requires it. I mention this, not with an Intention of putting the Reſolutioners upon a Footing with Government, but only to let him know, he is not quite ſo knowing in the Conſtitution as he thinks he is.

The Words "Traitor, Madman, Fool, Demagogue, Block-"head, Buffoon, proſanum Vulgus," flow as glib from his Tongue, as if he had been uſed to no other Kind of Language all his Life. If there are Men of ſuch a diabolical Caſt as he inſinuates, it is the Duty of every Individual to point them out, that a Whip ſhould be put into every honeſt Man's Hand to ſcourge them from Pariſh to Pariſh: But it certainly becomes the Perſon who values himſelf upon Perſpicuity, to let his Language expreſs the real Sentiments of his Soul, and to characterize in ſuch a Manner, as that no one can be miſtaken.

Whether he is the Man he is deſirous to be thought, let us have Recourſe to his Three Letters; and "as a Tree is known "by its Fruit," ſo, from "his Productions," you may be enabled to judge of him.

In his FIRST, he breaks out, "Behold the Carolina Pa-"triot! The preſent ruling Paſſion of THIS MAN, is a moſt "fervent Zeal to ſteer the State, and in his Way ſupport her "fundamental Laws." Is not this PERSONAL? Again, "Now "a-days, they aſſume the Appellation of Patriots, only to aſ-"ſiſt them in acquiring Treaſurerſhips:" And when the Perſon took it to himſelf, and from the Words one would think he could not be miſtaken: "No---HE was not the Man; it was "another" worthy Perſon: And then, "it was an Alluſion to "the Vice-Treaſurers of Ireland:" And then again, "it was "a Rogue's Cap, thrown amongſt the Multitude, with Take it "among you Gentlemen." Is this Integrity? Is it an Adherence to TRUTH? or, in his own Phraſe, "is it Patriotiſm?" While a Man is endeavouring to open the Eyes of his deluded Countrymen, is this a Method to be purſued? The Majeſty of the People does require the cleareſt Evidence; and, until this Matter is elucidated, FREEMAN will be thought not quite ſo good as he ſhould be,

--------- Telúmque imbelle ſine ictu
Conjecit: ----------

I acknowledge this Part of his Conduct is beyond my Comprehenſion. Sum davus non OEdipus, I am no Conjurer, but a plain blunt Man, who loves his Country, and ſpeaks right on, regardleſs (if he pleaſes) of Conſequences: But I ſhould be afraid of attacking any Man's Character, at leaſt his Equal, and accuſing him of the meaneſt Motives, without a ſingle Fact to ground my Aſſertion. Men who have a proper Regard to their own Characters, have a certain Tenderneſs about them, which makes them feel for others: And, if it would not be too condeſcending in a Man of "his Alti-"tude," he would do right to declare, who is the "over-"charged Patron;" who is a "Traitor or Madman," and who (poor Soul!) miſtook an oaken Bough, for a Bunch of "Straw?" Perhaps it may be the Man on the Point, or the Man of Santee, or, the honeſt big-ſized Mechanic, or, God knows who: Whoever he is, he ought to be taken Care of. If FREEMAN's Memory cannot recollect this unfortunate Perſon, perhaps the "Brick Building behind the Barracks," may be thought no improper Lodgment for himſelf. The other Parts of his Letter ſhall be noticed before we take our Leave.

In his SECOND Letter, I ſhall avoid all that is perſonal, and come to that Paragraph of his Opponent which he quotes. "What! and did the ſad Deluder terrify it too from trying to "put its Name to a Paper, by telling it the paw Word Enemy "was in it; when we all know there was no ſuch Word in any "of the Papers propoſed to be generally ſigned." The Conſtruction common Senſe and common Candor would put upon this Sentence is: That a Paper (which Paper was printed, that every Member of the Community might have an Opportunity of conſidering what Alterations were neceſſary, in Order to make the Plan as complete as poſſible, and many Alterations were made) had the Word "Enemy" in it; and that the Word was ſtruck out, before the Subſcription was ſigned by a ſingle Man. This is a Fact, which you might have known, as well as any other Man in the Province; and you ought to have known it, before you made a moſt ungenerous Attack, without any Foundation, upon Men who never deſerved it.

Now, let us ſee your Conſtruction: and as we jog on Side by Side, I ſhall take the Liberty of pulling you by the Sleeve, and interrupting you; which, for Diſtinction Sake, ſhall be in Italicks.

"Well! Truth will come out at one Time or another."

Who endeavoured to conceal it?

"We ſay Liars ſhould have good Memories,"

Very true.

"And I think, artful and deſigning Men ſhould always have "their Wits about them, for the ſame Reaſon."

Truly, I think ſo too.---Pray, who are they?

"What! and ſo there is a Paper which ab origine was in-"tended not to be generally ſigned;"

Pray, who told you ſo?---There was a rough Draught, which was no more than a Foundation to work upon, and which was neceſſary before any Thing could be done.

"But to be kept ſnug among thoſe in the Secret?"

Why, the Paper was printed; and thoſe in the Secret were, the whole Community.

"Perhaps it was a Partition-Treaty?"

Do you really think ſo? O monſtrous!

"Such a one as was made by the Triumvirs, Octavius, "Anthony and Lepidus;"

By George, Sir, you have ſaved the State!

"And in which they proſcribed honeſt Citizens, as Enemies "to the State;"

I hope my Name is not pricked?

"Aye! and had them put to Death, by Virtue of that Word "Enemy, and then laid violent Hands upon their Eſtates."

Aye! ſay you ſo?---Good Heavens! who would have thought it!

"The Word ENEMY is a very dangerous Word;"

Very true.

"We cannot be too cautious of an Enemy,"

The Parſon of your Pariſh could not teach you better.

"Or, of thoſe People who make ſecret Uſe of ſuch a hoſtile "Word,"

True again.

"And endeavour to conceal it from the Eyes of the Pub-"lic,"

Do they indeed! I never heard of their private Meetings.

"And when it is detected, pretend to laugh and make light "of it, in order, I ſuppoſe, to endeavour to lull us into a fatal "Security:"

Why, you are another Cicero, and have blown up a whole Bunch of Catilines. You deſerve a Statue!

"In the Midſt of which, the Contents of the Paper, which "kept was ſecret,"

Do make that out.

"And not intended to be generally ſigned, were to be made "generally known,"

They were, by Publication, ab initio.

"And to operate like Swords in the Hands of an Enemy,"

O Lud!

"Who would then lay his rapacious Hands on our Eſtates,"

The Devil he would!

"And in a ſurly Tone,"

A ſurly Dog!

"Cry out to the aſtoniſh'd Coloniſts,"

Aſtoniſh'd with great Reaſon.

"Hæc mea ſunt; veteres migrate Coloni."

He might cry his Eyes out, before he ſhould have my Eſtate.---A ſad Fellow! This is not to be endured.

"But to whatever Purpoſe that accurſed Paper was intended "to have been applied;"

My dear Sir, you have forgot yourſelf. You have juſt told us of the Application, Hæc mea ſunt.---P-x on ſuch an Application with all my Heart.

"For by the Compoſition of it great Numbers of this Com-"munity, as we are now aſſured, from Authority, were trai-"terouſly condemned as Enemies to this Country!"

I deny your Major. You have no Authority.---There was a Paper, which, as aforeſaid, had the Word Enemy in it; but as no one thought of ſigning it, it was ſimilar to a Charte Blanche. The Act of ſigning could alone have created Criminals. Until then, it would have been as innocent as yourſelf.

"Yet, I hope, the Danger is now blown over: the Plot ha-"ving been accidentally betrayed by the Babler,"

I am glad of it, with all my Heart; for I have been in one continual Tremor for my poor Country. A moſt execrable Attempt! according to your Account, worſe than the Gun-powder Plot; and Thanks to the real Babler, and TIMOTHY's News-Paper, for the Diſcovery; for, by Jupiter and Juno, the Plot is between you.

But to be ſerious. Surely your Letters are not calculated for the Meridian of this Country, becauſe every Man here who has mingled with Society, can contradict them. If you meant theſe two Paragraphs as a Jeu d'Eſprit, never was Wag more unfortunate in his Subject. If you meant them in Earneſt, I do not know what Apology you can make. Who is there among the Subſcribers, that bears the leaſt Reſemblance to the cruel unrelenting Caſar, the debauched immoral Anthony, or the ſtupid Lepidus? This is the Scene of Scrub in the Play over again; "I have diſcovered a Plot: I heard a Sound: It was Mrs. "Sullen or Dorinda, or ------ ſomething very like it." What Proſcriptions are ſet on Foot? What Point of the Conſtitution broke thro'? What Treaty for the Diviſion of Eſtates? What Deprivation of Rights? or, How are Men curb'd in their Opinions? You enjoy them in the utmoſt Latitude; and let me tell you, Sir, that you exert them to the Scandal of your own Character. If the Scheme was intended, which you are pleaſed to inſinuate, you would know better (ſtout in your Heart as you are) than to write in the Stile you do. Auguſtus wrote a ſevere Epigram againſt Aſinius Pollio, who was a Man of Genius: He was aſked, why he did not reply? I know better, ſays he, than ſcribere in eum, qui poteſt proſcribere. If the Men, whom you have thought proper to accuſe, aſſumed his Powers, although you have not the Genius, you have Wiſdom enough to follow the Example of Pollio. Fie, Sir! Fie! Surely your Years cannot have ſo hardened you yet, as not to ſuffer the Bluſh of Conviction for once to overſpread your Countenance.

I now come to your THIRD Letter. And I really think you are "gradually approximating" to that Degree of Perfection, which, no Doubt, you are aiming at. As to your Motto, I ſhould like it very well, if it ſuited you; and, in your next Letter (for, as you have little to do with Argument, you might write on World without End, if you were immortal) pray tell us, what you mean by the civium ardor prava jubentium. You ſay, you were "apprized, that the Intention of the Publication "was, to ſtigmatize" the Perſons of the Non-Subſcribers! I am one of the Committee, and was preſent: You were told, the Intention of the Publication, by Bills, was, that the Non-Subſcribers might be known in the Province, in order that no Man ſhould pretend Ignorance for dealing with them, contrary to one of the Reſolutions. If the Committee had meant what you ſay they did, they would have publiſhed them in the Papers. You ſay, that the "Owners of thoſe Names did not, nor WILL "NOT, like Slaves, obey the Mandates of the preſent RULING "POWERS of this Country." You are a Stickler for the Conſtitution! are you? Well! you may all flounce and flounder if you will: The preſent RULING POWERS are, GOVERNOR, COUNCIL, and ASSEMBLY.---This is no Buſineſs of mine---I heartily wiſh you well.

But pray, how can you make out, that the Reſolutions have laid "free Men" under "illegal Reſtraints, who have an un-"doubted Right to think and act for themſelves?" And, who are the Signers who "abhor, in their Conſciences," what they have done? If there are ſuch, they ought to be aſhamed. I believe Intereſt has made many a Man put his Hand to the Reſolutions. Intereſt is the Director of human Affairs. As an Individual, I have a Right to deal with whom I pleaſe; Society, or any Part of Society, have the ſame Right: Make it a Matter of Right, and it cannot admit of a Diſpute: The Aſſociation aſſumes no other Right: and as to the declaring a Subſcriber ought to be treated with Contempt, who does not adhere to the Reſolutions, it is a mere Matter of Opinion, which Men will ever exerciſe, without entering into Aſſociations. To be ſure, the greater the Numbers, the greater the Weight. That it is an Hardſhip, Men ſhould be conſtrained to enter into ſuch Meaſures, no Body will deny: But let us put the Saddle upon the right Horſe; Thoſe who have rendered ſuch Meaſures neceſſary, are anſwerable for the uncommon Roads they force Mankind to take. But, do not let Men of a particular Turn of Mind, bellow in our Ears the Deſtruction of our Conſtitution, when the Members of the Aſſociation are as innocent of any Encroachments upon it, as the Gentlemen themſelves. And as to the Reſtraints of the Will, TIMOTHY's laſt Paper contradicts the Aſſertion ſufficiently. It is amazing, that Gentlemen will declare, they look upon the Publication of their Names as an Honour done them, and at the ſame Time pronounce, they have been injured.

Falſus Honor juvat, mendax et infamia terret
Quem! niſi mendoſum et mendacem.

For my Part, if I was in their Situation, I would not deign to take Notice of it.

As to FREEMAN's Declaration, of his being willing to give up his "Opinion, if proper Arguments are produced:" We beg Leave to ſay, he has had enough of them already to make him alter many he has adopted; but, in the Phraſe of his Friend Falſtaff, he is not a Man of that Kidney. I ſhould be glad to know, who has attempted "to bully him out" of his "Opinion." Would not any one, who bore the Reſemblance of Man, be aſhamed of the Character?

The Gentleman talks of Men "caſting Reflections upon him; "and that he ſhall, without Heſitation, exerciſe the ſame Li-"berty, and throw ſuch Reflections, as ſhall ſtick where in-"tended." No one ever took the leaſt Notice of him, until he ſtept forth, and hack'd and hew'd about him with a Dagger like a Hand-Saw, in ſuch a Manner, as Patience herſelf (that ſweet-tempered Maid) could not avoid being provoked. If his Reflections are for the future to ſtick where [illegible], it is more than they have done yet. And if he makes TRUTH, and the Conſtitution, the unerring Guides of his Shafts, he [illegible] applauded: But I would adviſe him, to get a little better acquainted with them firſt, leſt he might not always know them, when he accidentally falls into their Company.

The Gentleman need not enquire, who are "the Printers "of the Hand-Bills." The Names of the Committee were publiſhed in the News-Papers; he knows their Names. He waited on the Chairman for one of the Hand-Bills; if he wants a Lift, he ſhall have one. They are not aſhamed of the Publication; they muſt be guilty of a Crime before they will make an Atonement; they deſpiſe your Abſolution, as all true Proteſtants ſhould; they defy you and your Abettors. With no other Fear before their Eyes but the Fear of God and of the Loſs of Liberty, THEY care not what MAN can do unto them.

"The proſanum Vulgus," in Engliſh, the MECHANICKS, "is a Species of Mankind which I reſpect as I ought." Pardon my Preſumption, Sir; I do not think you do. "It is hu-"mani Generis," is that all? mere two-legged Creatures. Pray, from whom did you borrow this Hint? And ſo you are for ſorting Mankind, as a Botaniſt does the different Species of Plants? THEY are the Bones and Sinews of Society; and in any general Plan, are as much to be regarded, where their Liberties and Properties are equally at Stake, as any others whatever. THEY never attempted to controul your Opinions; and I defy you to prove, that any Man has made any Encroachments upon your Rights.

The Gentleman now is entering into the Marrow, Bones and all, of his Arguments, and, like Milton's Hero, collecting all his Might, ſtands, dilated, like Teneriff or Atlas, unremoved. Let us ſee, what this mighty Preparation will come to.

Men of "a liberal Education," or Men "who have read" only "a little, it Matters not, ſhould make a proper Uſe of ſuch "Advantages, and not have conſulted, de Arduis Reipublicæ, "with" Butchers, Shoemakers, and Carpenters. Who are theſe Men? and what Men have ever conſulted de Arduis Reipublicæ, but in the Senate? Point theſe Men out, and let them be ſeized, for taking upon them the Powers of Governme[illegible] you ſtill continue to write againſt Men, without [illegible]ing what they are about? or, are you determined, in ſpite of information, to continue wilfully ignorant, leſt you ſhould have nothing to ſay? Are you yet to learn, that the Committee were appointed for no other Purpoſe, but to ſee a due Execution of a Number of Agreements, which (notwithſtanding your Name is not added to the Liſt) are entered into by the beſt Heads, the beſt Hearts, and cleaneſt Hands in the Province? An Agreement begun by the Speaker, and followed by the Repreſentatives of the People, even in the Temple of Liberty itſelf. Does it require the Abilities of a Stateſman, to ſee theſe Articles fulfilled? Have not the Mechanicks, whom you have treated ſo ungenerouſly, a Right to be conſulted, about their Property, as well as you? Have not Men a Right to come into ſuch Agreements, and bind one another up? What Point of the Conſtitution denies this Right? Does your Concluſion, "That all the Committee are upon a Level in Point "of Knowledge," make them ſo? Does this Concluſion redound to your Penetration, or add the leaſt Luſtre to your Virtue?

Well! now we are to have "the Maſks pulled from our "Faces, and to be ſhewn as Figures; and this Treatment is to "make one Man hang his Lip, another take Snuff, and all to "be thrown into Confuſion, becauſe FREEMAN attacks them, "for taking Liberties with him, contrary to all Right and Juſ-"tice." A heavy Charge! if true---but, 'tis like * Therſites defending the Cauſe of Greece.

You ſay, "The Committee aſſumes the Title of The General "Committee in Defence of American Liberties." I am ſorry to contradict you ſo often: It is a Title of your own giving, merely, to have the Pleaſure of denying it.---† John againſt Lilburne; and Lilburne againſt John.

You do right, to warn your Countrymen, how they ſuffer any "Encroachments upon their Liberties." This Certainty of an Encroachment was the Foundation of the Aſſociation. But pray, who are the Men who "betray with Kiſſes, and with Smiles?" Judas betrayed his Maſter with a Kiſs, and this he did for Thirty Pieces of Silver. Shew, in what Manner can any Man be benefitted, by betraying his Countrymen? There is a bare Poſſibility

---

* THERSITES, was a peſtilent Fellow in the Camp of the Greeks, who diſturbed the Councils of the Chiefs, by Abuſe without Diſtinction. From his inceſſant Railing, he might juſtly be called the rotten Core of the Camp.

MARTINUS SCRIBLERUS.

† It was ſaid of JOHN LILBURNE, ſuch was his Diſpoſition, that if he was the only Man in the World, John would be againſt Lilburne, and Lilburne againſt John.

of Confiscation of Estates, for defending the Cause of Liberty; and I could point out Men, who probably might be put in Possession, for their laudable Dispositions. This is all the Profit which a true Assertor of Liberty can expect. I must ask again, who are these Judas's? The Men who have been the principal Objects of your Wrath, are remarkable for Gravity: In one Respect, they resemble Cassius; they seem to mock themselves when they smile: And the celebrated Scotch Biographer of the celebrated Paoli, who had seen all the great Men of Europe, observes, "That Men of great Abilities seldom laugh, and "that great Laughers are remarkable for a Poverty of Genius." You know a Man, whom you admire, to whom hold up but a little Finger, and his Sides will crack with Laughter.

You say, "this Committee hath violated the first Principles of "Liberty;" that they "act in a despotic and unjust Manner;" "that they have assumed a Power to compell great Numbers of "Freemen, to make a painful Surrender of the Liberty and "Right of thinking, judging and acting for themselves." You have asserted a great many bold Things; but this is a Flight beyond Parnassus itself. I wish, like your Friend Horace, you do not strike your Head against the Stars. How your Heart felt, when you wrote this, I do not know; mine would have fluttered. The Committee were chosen by the Signers: They never did any Thing, but what concerned their Resolutions; and while they confine themselves to that Agreement solely, their Choice is a SUFFICIENT AUTHORITY for their acting. You enjoy every Right of a Citizen; so does every Man. No one has been COMPELLED; every Man has been left to follow his own Judgment: If some have given it up, in Regard to their Interest, they have been prudent. No Man can be censured, by Words which do not convey a Reflection: Shew one the Committee has made. Your Name, I believe, neither is or will be printed and dispersed thro' North-America; but if it should so happen, the Committee will disclaim the Act.

I deny, that the Proceedings of the Association are "arbitrary "and unjust." They have not broke thro' a single Law of the Land. They have as much Right to enter into the Resolutions as you have to steer clear of them. They have a Right to bind one another; they have a Right to associate, to deal with whom they please. Shall they give up a Plan, which they think will produce their utmost Felicity, even though a Thousand such Men as you should abuse without Restraint? Free Men must have free Wills: In this Case, I agree with you.

You say, "you have been informed, from the best Authority, "that the Committee could not manufacture a Preface to their "publication, after repeatedly torturing their literary Talents. "Were young in Manufactories, it is true; but I can tell you, "what you are willing to be ignorant of, That they avoided "making any Preface at all, for fear of a certain ill Turn of Mind "might take any Advantage of it. I believe you are surrounded "with Sycophantical Set, if you have been miserably informed: "But I look upon this Attention as a Piece of Trap-Wit, to have a "Stroke at the Heads of the Committee, and to pave the Way for "your Introduction, which will not be accepted, because the Committee are of Opinion, that your Understanding is far BELOW the Level of their own.

Like the youthful Pyrrhus, you cry out, Aspice num magè sit nostrum penetrabile Telum. I suppose you mean your Pen. It is a Feather in the Hands of a froward Infant, not in Years, but in Prudence, in Knowledge, in Argument; I will not wound your Ears by adding TRUTH. Are you a Man to recommend the Study of the Classicks? do you range in that pure Element; and can you condescend to puddle in such foul Waters? Let me advise you, to sacrifice to the Graces.

To sum up the Whole. You have wrote THREE LETTERS, in which you have scarce advanced a single Argument which is not founded on a false Assertion. You have adopted a few constitutional Principles, and which you have rendered totally useless, by applying them to false Reasoning. You have attributed to some Gentlemen the basest Motives; and, when taken Notice of, you carefully avoided the Imputation, and fell to Railing. In this you was right, because you could not prove it. You have, by a scandalous Insinuation, accused some Persons of fomenting the Troubles of the Times, with a View of overturning the Government, and seizing Estates. Good God! you have asserted, that the best Heads, and the best Hearts, and almost all the Men of Property in the Province, have bullied themselves into Measures, for the Destruction of the provincial Government, the sacred Rights of Citizens, the free Wills of free Men: And this they have done, by resolving to wear their old Cloaths, buy no new Ones from Great-Britain, and not purchase in any Way, from those who will not act in the same Manner. You have accused Men of assuming the POWERS OF GOVERNMENT, which cannot be proved by a single Instance. You have conjured up the Ghost of the Word Enemy, after it was buried, to traduce the Characters of Gentlemen. You have said more in three Letters, than you can answer in YOUR WHOLE LIFE.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) SEPTEMBER 6.

FRIDAY last his Honour Anthony Stokes, Esq; was sworn into the office of Chief Justice of this province, before his Excellency the Governor.

At a meeting of the AMICABLE SOCIETY, held at Liberty-Hall, on Saturday last, it was RESOLVED, That public notice be given to the Planters, Merchants, Tradesmen, and all other Inhabitants of this province, desiring their company on Tuesday the 12th inst. at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at the house of Mr. Peat, to take under serious consideration the most effectual means for obtaining relief from the many and oppressive burdens this as well as the other provinces have hitherto laboured under, and remonstrated against in vain, by several late acts of the British legislature, which evils, if continued, must inevitably reduce the whole continent to a condition in supportable by freemen: And it is hoped that all those who retain a due sense of the invaluable privileges of Englishmen, the right of trial by jury, and that of suffering their property to be given and granted away only by their own consent, will cheerfully concur in such salutary measures as may be judged expedient to answer the good purposes intended.

Mr. Johnston, 4th Sept. 1769.

AS you want news, the following is perhaps the freshest ever came to your hands:

The Empress of Russia has demolished the Great Turk; this morning she run him through the body, in the eye of the whole world, and of course obtained a compleat victory. The present Comet I call the Empress of Russia; she has made a surprizing quick march from the Seven Stars to Orion in 10 days; this Orion, or the Giant, or the Great Turk, was run through this morning at 3 o'clock, just under the left shoulder, in a very pretty manner; it looked exactly like an arrow sticking in him, but is a sure shot, for it is passing through to his head, so that the long shank of the arrow will follow, and be seen these two or three nights, and the grey goose wing thereon will be wet in his heart's blood. N. B. As there are seven hours between this and Constantinople, the battle must have been fought this morning early, and the decisive blow given by 10 o'clock. I was so pleased with this fancy that I went dancing to bed.

CHARLES-TOWN, SEPTEMBER 28.

THE Scooner Peggy, John Whitehead Master, from New-Providence, for this Port, two Sloops, and some other Vessels, we hear, have put into some of the Southern Inlets, during the late blowing Weather.

The Ship Diamond, Capt. Philipson from the Bay of Honduras, has had a Pilot on board above a Week, and not yet got in.

On Wednesday the 20th Instant died, Mr. Alexander Hext, of this Town.

Thursday arrived here from Scotland, Doct. Peter Fayssoux, Mr. William Keith (son of Doct. Keith) and Mrs. Keith.

On Friday returned here, in the Hawke Tender, George Mills, Esq; one of the Inspectors-General of His Majesty's Customs, under the Board of Commissioners at Boston, having been through the Provinces and Islands under his Inspection. He came last from East-Florida.

The same Day put into this Port, the Sloop Polly, Samuel Devonshire Master, from Africa, 9 Weeks out, with Slaves, bound for Newbern in North-Carolina, whither she will proceed with the first fair Wind.

Last Saturday Evening died, Mr. Joseph Ball, sen. of this Town, aged 66 Years.

The same Day put in, dismasted, and otherwise damaged, in the late tempestuous Weather, the Ship Pennant, James Campbell Master, of and for Liverpoole, from Jamaica; where we hear some Damage was done to the Shipping, in a Gale of Wind which happened on the 8th of August.

It has been remarked, in Mr. Wells's Gazette of last Monday, that "the Ship London, Capt. Alexander Curling, arrived here "last Friday, was the fullest Ship to this Port, for a considerable "Time past?" It would not have been amiss to have added, that a great part of the Importation is, for the neighbouring Province of Georgia; and that when this Ship left England, the 21st of July, the Merchants there could not have had the least Intimation of the Resolutions entered into here, which were not signed before the 22d.

Tuesday last put in here, the Sloop Sally, Giles Sage Master, from Jamaica bound for New-York, out 43 Days, and destitute of every kind of Provisions.

A Ship bound for Cape-Fear, passed by this Yesterday; as did the Scooner Lloyd, Captain Harvey, from Turk's-Island, bound for George-Town.

The Transports with His Majesty's 21st Regiment on board, were not arrived, nor had been seen off the Bar of St. Augustine 14 Days ago; whence it is feared, they may have suffered from the late bad Weather.

The Brigantine Dembia, Francis Bare, Master, from this Port, bound for Liverpoole, having been hove down, and Part of her Sheathing stripped, her sudden leaking so much, has been found to be owing to four large Rat Holes eaten thro', and that she is otherwise a very sound Vessel, and accordingly is refitting to proceed on her intended Voyage.

PRICE of RICE, 60s. per 100lb.

Not having Room for the Letter subscribed "A MEMBER OF THE ASSEMBLY AND SIGNER OF THE RESOLUTIONS," in this Day's Paper, the Publication thereof must be deferred till our next.

The last Adjournment of the GENERAL COMMITTEE, was to Tuesday next, when they are to meet at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the House of Mr. Robert Dillon.

THE SUBSCRIBER,

HAVING removed from the Country, has taken the House next Door to Mr. JOHN ROSE's, near the Governor's Bridge, where he purposes keeping a to carry PERSONS and HORSES over to HOBCAW, or any other Place, on that Side of the River, and has provided proper Boats and Hands, for that Purpose. As there has never been such a Thing in Charles-Town, and, as he has had great Encouragement, from Numbers of People, to undertake such a Thing, hopes it may be of some Utility to the Public, as he is determined to be as assiduous as possible in the Business, and thereby hopes to meet with Encouragement, merit Approbation, and give general Satisfaction, as he will endeavour to accommodate Persons with a Boat and Hands, at a few Minutes Warning. He has reserved the front Room in his House, for Passengers to sit down in, while the Boat is getting ready, that they may not be exposed to wait on the Wharf, or walk up and down the Streets: If this Undertaking should turn out to be of that Utility, which he hopes it may, the Subscriber flatters himself, that, when the Honourable House of Assembly meets again, they will take it into Consideration, hear the Prayer of a Petitioner, and indulge him with an Establishment. ANDREW HIBBEN.

FERRY,

N. B. On the Wharf where the Ferry-Boats go from, is opened a LIME-STORE, where Persons may, from Time to Time, be served with any small or large Quantity of LIME, slacked or un-slacked.

The aforesaid Baronies, contain large Tracts of exceeding fine Oak and Hickory Swamp, and Marsh Lands, extremely proper for the culture of Rice, Corn, Indico, Wheat, Hemp, and every other Article to which the Climate is adapted. The Plats may be seen in the Hands of Mr. JAMES THOMSON, Deputy-Surveyor. AND WHEREAS little Regard has been paid by the Trespassers on the Black-River Barony, to our former Advertisement, requesting either Removal from the said Land, or the immediate Purchase of the same: We now, for the last Time, inform all Persons concerned, both on the Black-River, and Pedee Baronies, that unless they remove from, or obtain Title to, their several Possessions, either by Purchase or Lease, from us, on or before the first Day of December next, Action at Law will be then commenced against them: And, lest it should be imagined, that Circumstances favourable to them, have hitherto prevented us from pursuing compulsive Measures, according to our former Notice, we think it proper to inform them, that the Death of Mr. FISHER, one of the Proprietors, and the Necessity of a Renewal of Letters of Attorney, were the only Obstacles to the enforcement of our former Resolutions, which Letters of Attorney are now transmitted to us. ALSO,

A PART of the BARONY in Granville County, known by the Name of JASPER'S BARONY, adjoining Lands of Col. Heyward, and other Settlements on the Euhaws.
